

天主教輔仁大學英國語文學系學士班畢業成果
ENGLISH DEPARTMENT, FU JEN CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY
GRADUATION PROJECT 2019

指導教授：楊禎禎老師

Prof. Jane Yang

真善美聖

Picture Book: The Tale of a Tree

學生：姚西子撰

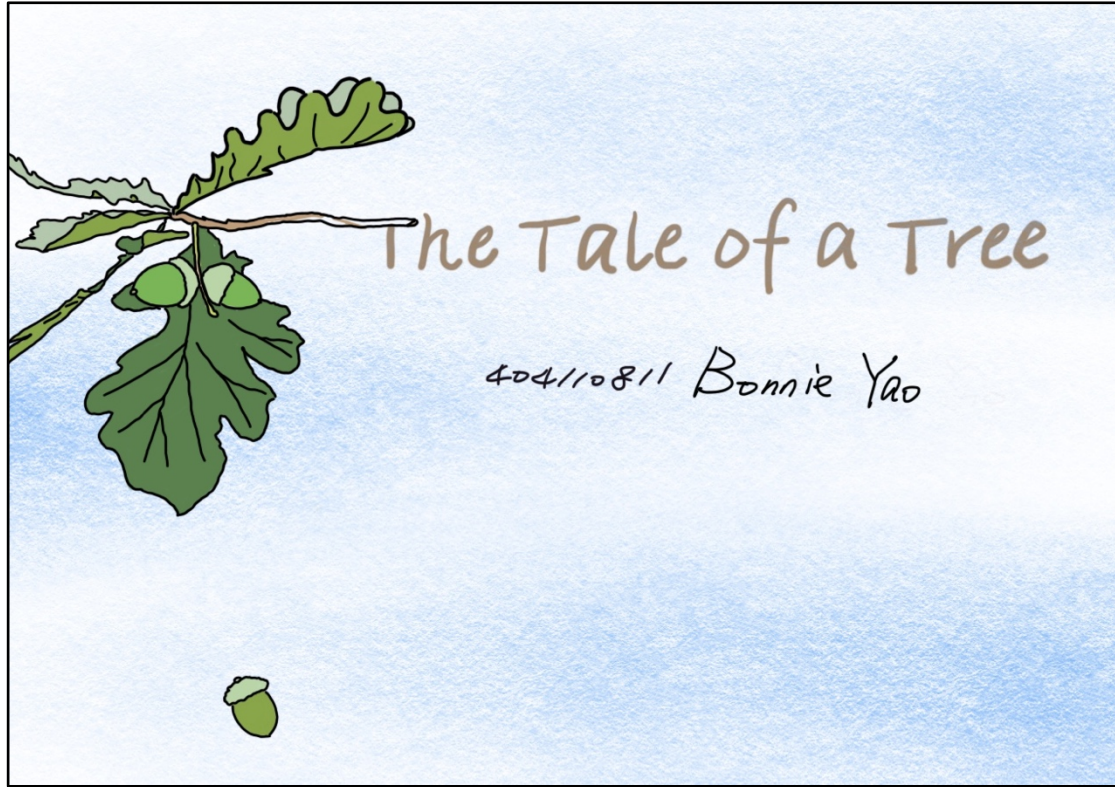

Bonnie His-Tzu Yao

English Department, Fu Jen Catholic University

Learning Outcome Demonstration

Pictures Books

Book Title: The Tale of a Tree

Author: Bonnie Yao

Introduction

Summary

One day an acorn falls from an oak and starts its life journey. The oak helps him to pass a winter. And then it has to grow stronger and tougher before the next winter arrives. After it passes countless challenges of the cold winter and the violent storm. It becomes a huge and beautiful oak. One day a small acorn falls from its bough. It promises to take care of it.

Themes

For kids: The Circle of Life, Responsibility, and Persistence

For adults: Forest Protection, The Importance of Forest Eco-system

English Teaching

Grammar: Comparative, Present Perfect Tense, Present Progressive Tense

The Tale of a Tree

404/10811 Bonnie Yao

To: _____

I am lonely.

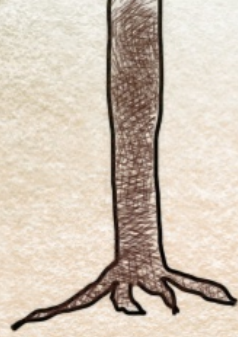

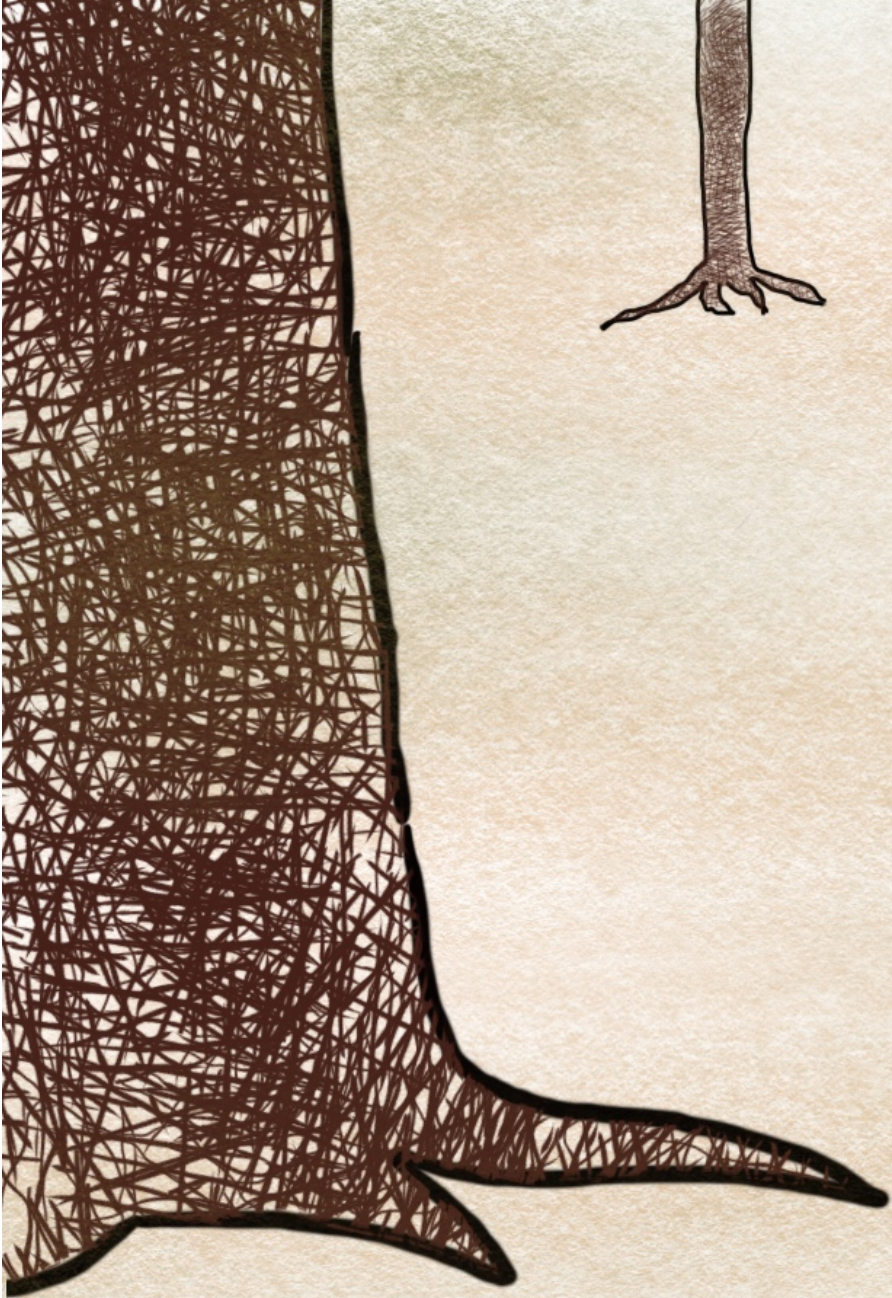

I am here.

I will cover you.

Don't worry!

Take a good sleep!

I am growing a leg.

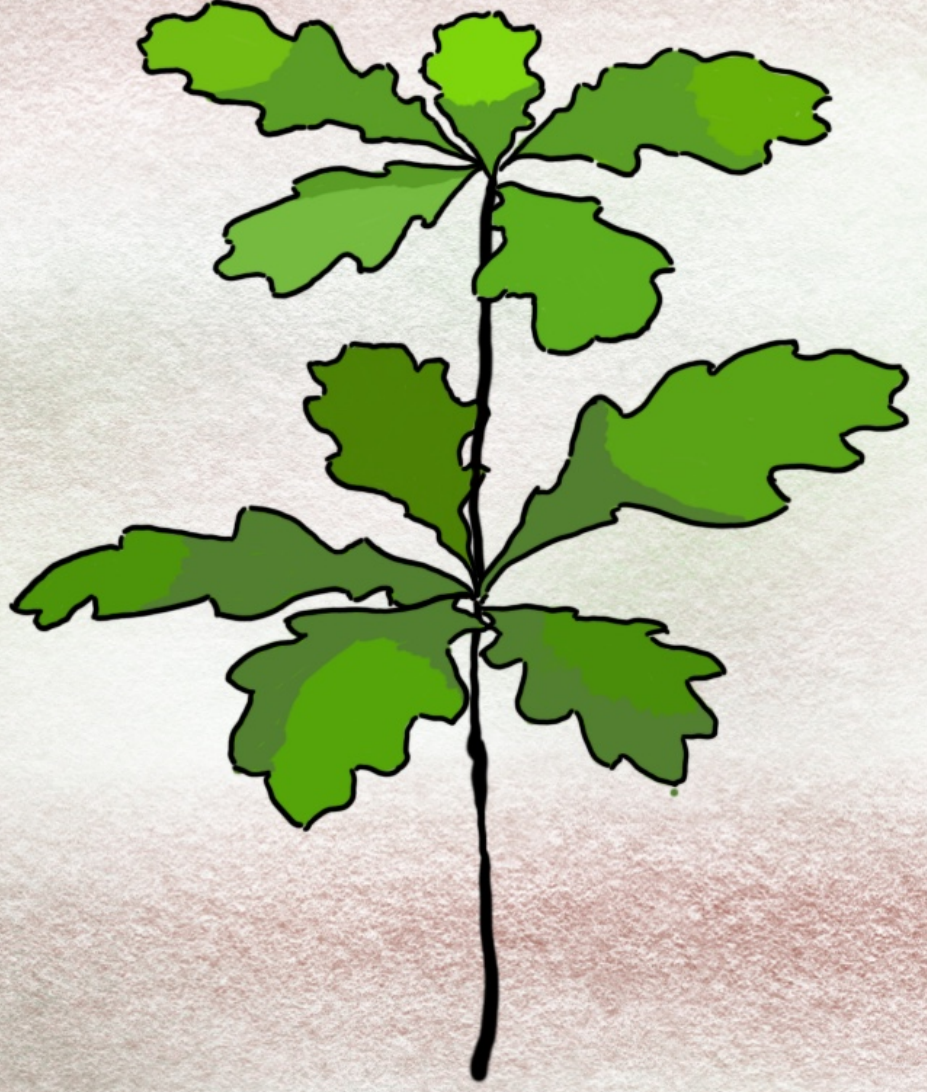

I am growing bigger.

I am growing taller.

I have had many leaves.

There is a tree like me.

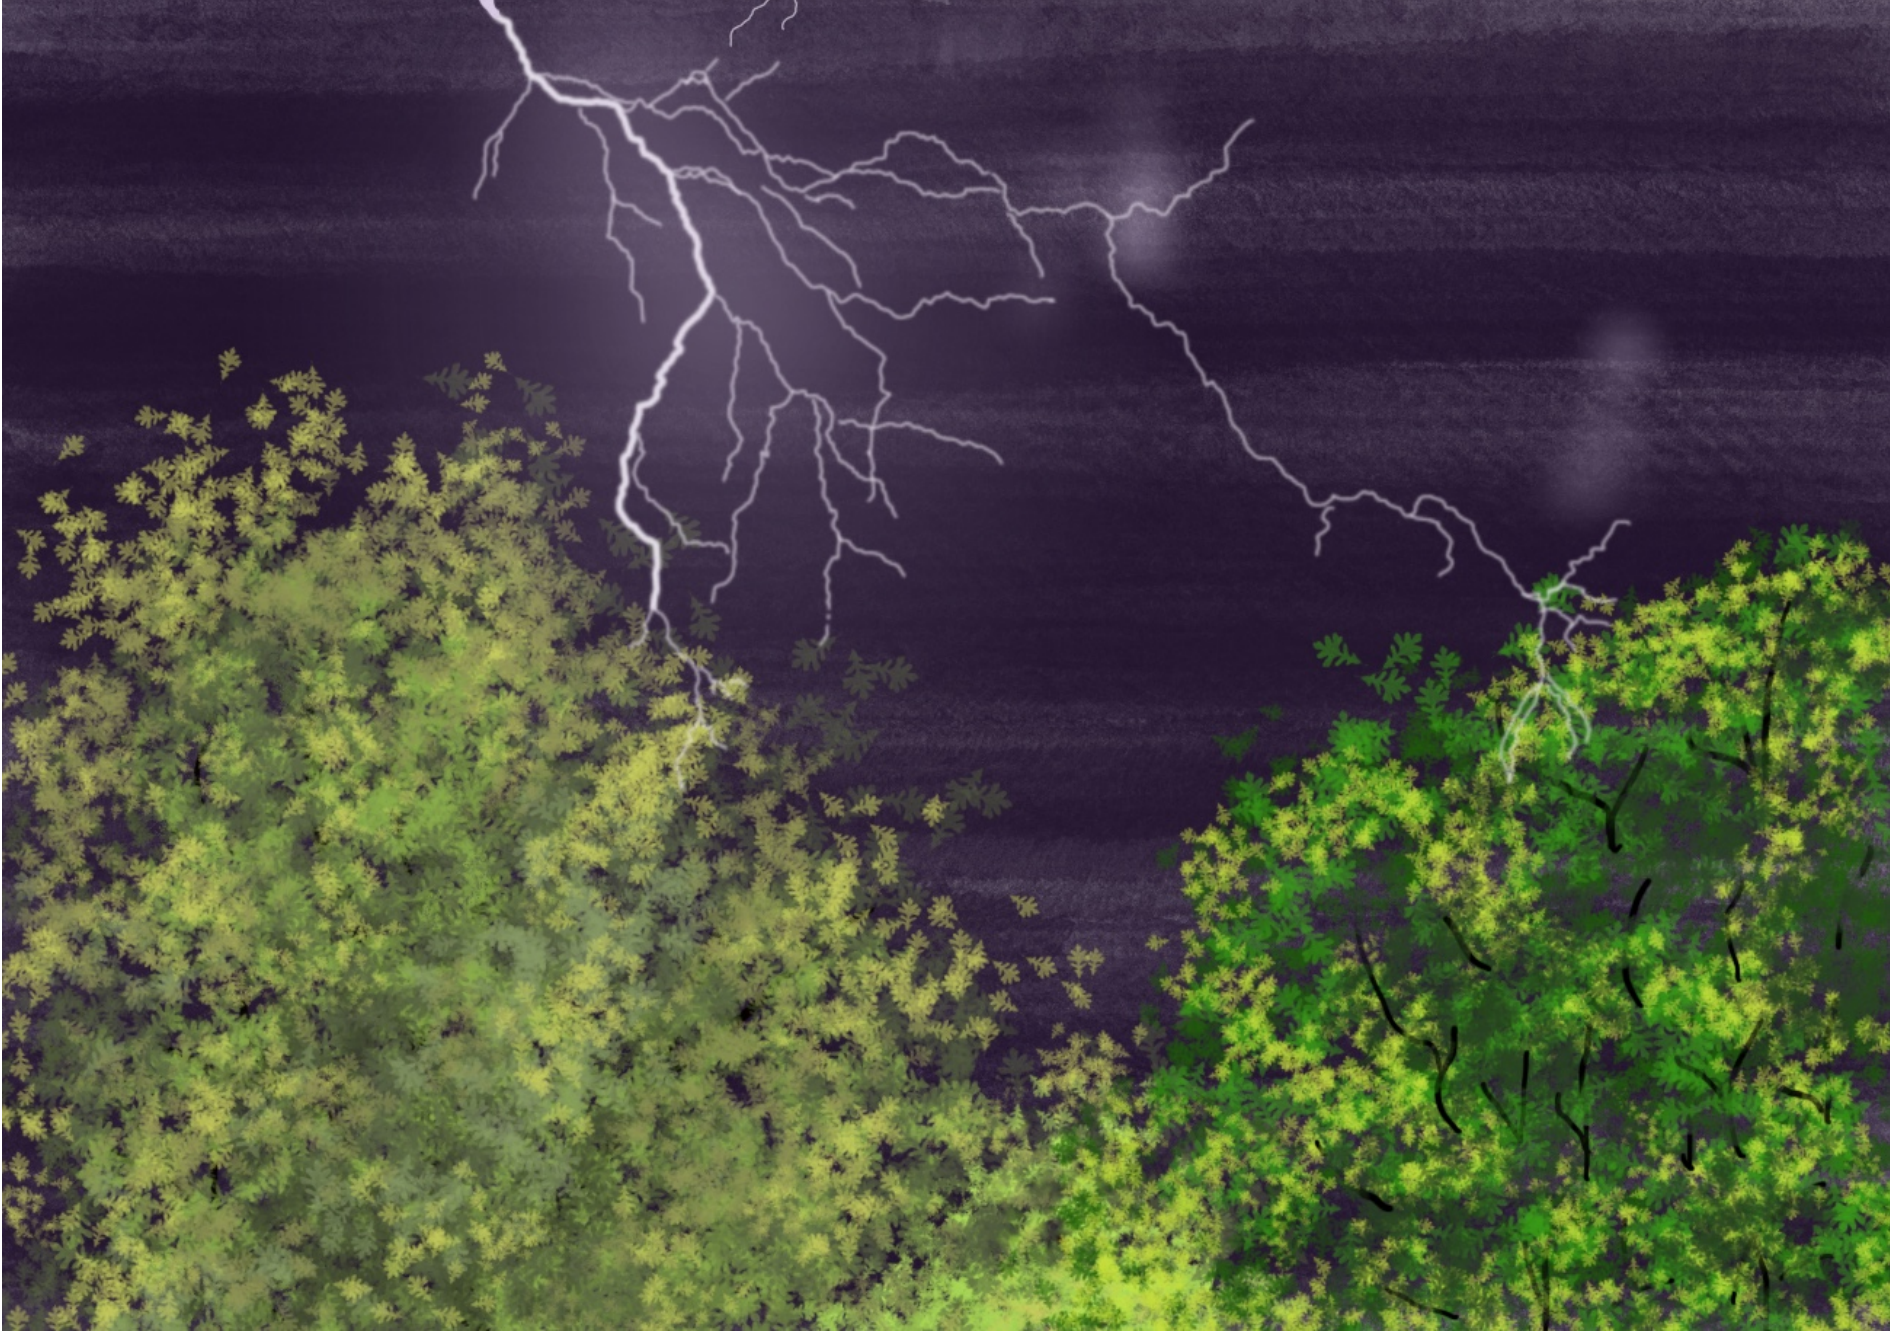

We are growing.

It is scary!

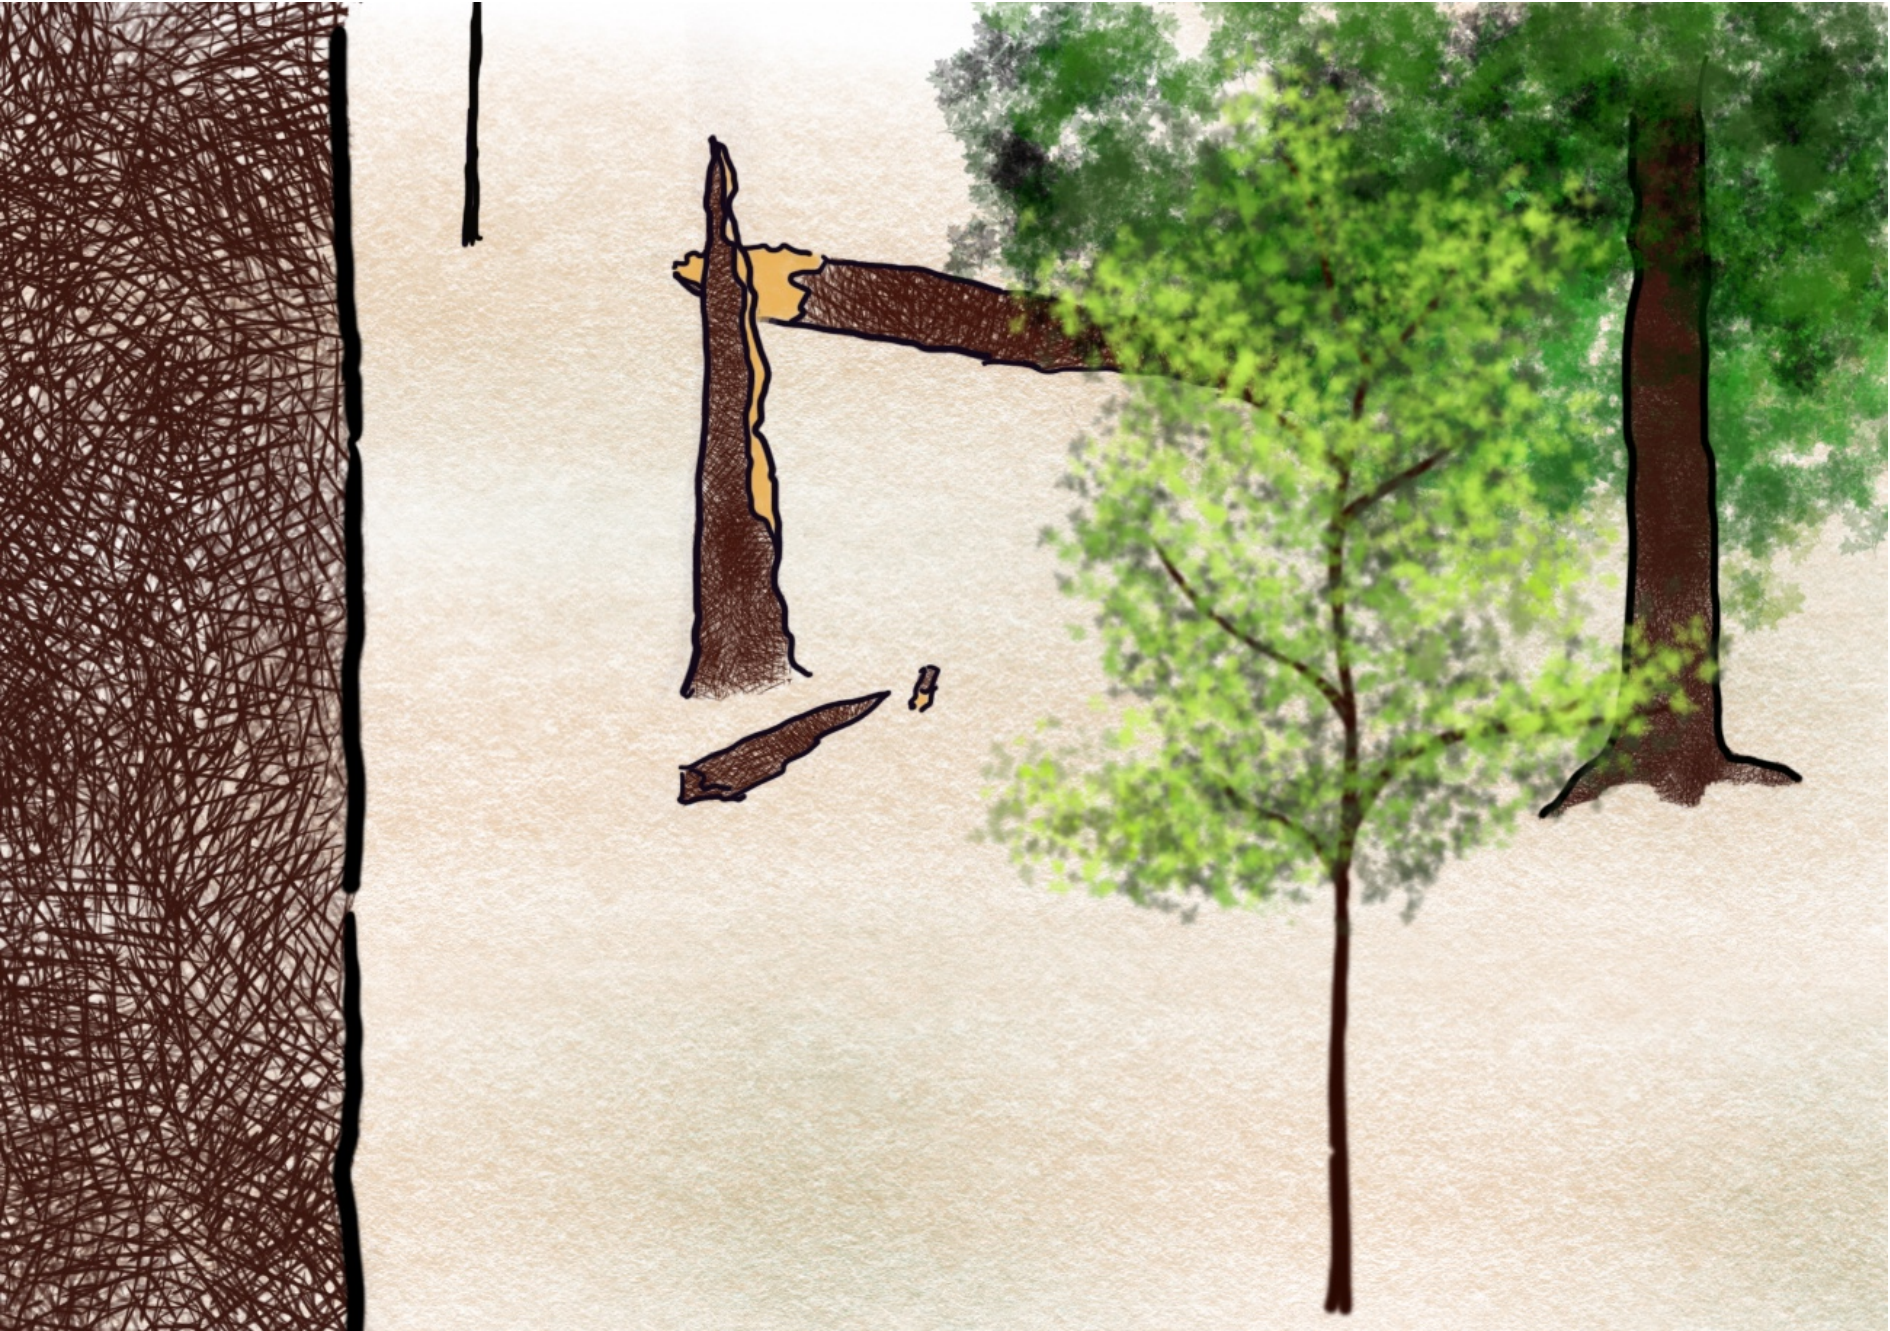

Don't worry!

I will cover you.

An accident happened!

I am cold.

Just hang in there!

Spring!

My feet have become stronger.

My hands have become longer.

I am a big tree now.

Oops!

I am here.

I will cover you.

The End

